Indirect Purchaser Standing Provisions of 19 Jurisdictions

State	Section 1 Analogue	Section 2 Analogue	Relationship To Federal Law	Indirect Purchaser Standing
CA	Cal. Bus & Prof. Code § 16720; 16727 (specific tying provision): “It shall be unlawful for any person to lease or make a sale or contract for the sale of goods, merchandise, machinery, supplies, commodities . . . on the condition, agreement or understanding that the lessee or purchaser thereof shall not use or deal in the goods, merchandise, machinery, supplies, commodities, or services of a competitor or competitors of the lessor or seller, where the effect of such lease, sale, or contract for sale or such condition, agreement or understanding may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of trade or commerce in any section of the State.”	Cal. Bus & Prof. Code § 17200 prohibits “any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice. See Korea Supply Co. v. Lockheed Martin Corp. , 29 Cal. 4th 1134, 1135, 131 Cal. Rptr. 2d 29, 63 P.3d 937 (Cal. 2003) (stating that the UCL “embraces anything that can properly be called a business practice and that at the same time is forbidden by law.”); Doe v. Abbott Labs. , 2004 U.S. Fist. LEXIS 29129 (N.D.Cal. Oct. 21, 2004).	“Though not always directly probative of the Cartwright Act drafters’ intent, judicial interpretations of the Sherman Act are, nevertheless, often helpful because of the similarity in language and purpose between the federal and state statutes.” Morrison v. Viacom, Inc. , 66 Cal.App.4th 534, 541 n.2 (1998).	Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 16750(a): action may be brought by NE	Neb. Rev. Stat. § 59-801: “Every contract, combination in the form of trust or otherwise, or conspiracy in restraint of trade or commerce, within this state, is hereby declared to be illegal. Every person who shall make any such contract or engage in any such combination or conspiracy shall be deemed guilty of a Class IV felony.	Neb. Rev. Stat. § 59-802: “Every person who shall monopolize, or attempt to monopolize, or combine or conspire with any other person or persons, to monopolize any part of the trade or commerce, within this state, shall be deemed guilty of a Class IV felony.”	Neb. Rev. Stat. § 59-829: “When any provision of sections 59-801 to 59-831 and sections 84-211 to 84-214 or any provision of Chapter 59 is the same as or similar to the language of a federal antitrust law, the courts of this state in construing such sections or chapter shall follow the construction given to the federal law by the federal courts.”	Neb. Rev. Stat. § 59-821: allows action “whether such injured person dealt directly or indirectly with the defendant . . .”

NV	Nev. Rev. Stat. § 598A.060(1)(d): “1. Every activity enumerated in this subsection constitutes a contract, combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade, and it is unlawful to conduct any part of any such activity in this state . . . (d) Tying arrangements, consisting of contracts in which the seller or lessor conditions the sale or lease of commodities or services on the purchase or leasing of another commodity or service.”	Nev. Rev. Stat. § 598A.060(1)(e): “1. Every activity enumerated in this subsection constitutes a contract, combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade, and it is unlawful to conduct any part of any such activity in this state . . . (e) Monopolization of trade or commerce in this state, including, without limitation, attempting to monopolize or otherwise combining or conspiring to monopolize trade or commerce in this state.”	Nev. Rev. Stat. § 598A.050: “The provisions of this chapter shall be construed in harmony with prevailing judicial interpretations of the federal antitrust statutes.”	Nev. Rev. Stat. § 589A.210(2): grants right to bring damages action to “any person injured or damaged directly or indirectly.”
NM	N.M. Stat. Ann. § 57-1-1: “Every contract, agreement, combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade or commerce, any part of which trade or commerce is within this state, is unlawful.”	N.M. Stat. § 57-1-2. Monopolies: “It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person to monopolize or attempt to monopolize, or combine or conspire with any other person or persons to monopolize, trade or commerce, any part of which trade or commerce is within this state.”	N.M. Stat. § 57-1-15: “Unless otherwise provided in the Antitrust Act, the Antitrust Act shall be construed in harmony with judicial interpretations of the federal antitrust laws. This construction shall be made to achieve uniform application of the state and federal laws prohibiting restraints of trade and monopolistic practices.”	N.M. Stat. § 57-1-3(A)(2) & (C).

Code § 51-08.1-02: “A contract, combination, or conspiracy between two or more persons in restraint of, or to monopolize, trade or commerce in a relevant market is unlawful.”	N.D. Cent. Code § 51-08.1-03: “The establishment, maintenance, or use of a monopoly, or an attempt to establish a monopoly, of trade or commerce in a relevant market by any person, for the purpose of excluding competition or controlling, fixing, or maintaining prices, is unlawful.”	See North Dakota Attorney General Opinion 81-35 (April 2, 1981) (stating that North Dakota relies on federal case law interpreting the Sherman Act in the absence of North Dakota case law).	N.D. Cent. Code § 51-08.1-08(3): the fact that plaintiff “has not dealt directly with the defendant does not bar recovery” of damages.
SD	S.D. Codified Laws § 37-1-3.1: “A contract, combination, or conspiracy between two or more persons in restraint of trade or commerce any part of which is within this state is unlawful.”	S.D. Codified Laws § 37-1-3.2: “The monopolization by any person, or an attempt to monopolize, or combine, or conspire with any other person or persons, to monopolize any of the trade or commerce within this state shall be unlawful.”	S.D. Codified Laws § 37-1-22: “It is the intent of the Legislature that in construing this chapter, the courts may use as a guide interpretations given by the federal or state courts to comparable antitrust statutes.”	S.D. Codified Laws § 37-1-33: “No provision of this chapter may deny any person who is injured directly or indirectly in his business or property by a violation of this chapter the right to sue for and obtain any relief afforded under [the statute].”
TN	Tenn. Code Ann. § 47-25-101: “All arrangements, contracts, agreements, trusts, or combinations between persons or corporations made with a view to lessen, or which tend to lessen, full and free competition in the importation or sale of articles imported into this state, or in the manufacture or sale of articles of domestic growth or of domestic raw material, and all arrangements, contracts, agreements, trusts, or combinations between persons or corporations	Tenn. Code Ann. § 47-25-102: “Any arrangements, contracts, and agreements that may be made by any corporation or person, or by and between its agents and subagents . . . are declared to be against public policy, unlawful, and void.”	See State ex rel. Leech v. Levi Strauss &amp; Co. , 1980 WL 4696, *2 n.2 (Tenn. Ch. Ct. Sept. 25, 1980) (“The State anti-trust statute passed in 1891 is quite similar to the Sherman Anti-Trust Act passed by Congress in 1890. 15 U.S.C. § 1. Authorities which define the character of private damage suits under the federal anti-trust statutes, particularly the Sherman Act, are most persuasive.”).	Freeman Industries LLC v. Eastman Chemical Co. , 172 S.W.3d 512, 519-20 (Tenn. 2005) (dismissing the concern of duplicative recovery, and noting that direct purchasers often do not sue and pass on the overcharge to consumers).
